ORAL QUESTIONS

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On August 14, the Member for Simcoe-Grey provided me with written notice of his intention to raise a point of privilege upon the resumption of the House.

I am now prepared to give my ruling without hearing further from the Member for Simcoe-Grey, as Standing Order 21(d) permits me to do.

The Member's point of privilege relates to the existence of certain emails that were recently produced to the Standing Committee on Justice Policy in connection with that committee's review of the gas plants issue generally, and my September 13, 2012 ruling specifically.

These emails chronicle a discussion among a number of then-current and former staff in Premier McGuinty's office, and are offered by the Member for Simcoe-Grey as evidence that an attempt was made to influence or intimidate me with respect to my ruling arising from the point of privilege put forward on August 27, 2012 by the Member for Cambridge.

As I have said in a public statement on July 30, I cannot speak to the mindset or motivation of the authors of these emails. However, I think it is crucial to note that my ruling that a prima facie case of privilege had been established by the Member for Cambridge, was made on September 13, 2012 - fully eight days before the emails in question here.

I can tell the House that I made that September 13 ruling without any interference from any person, based on the evidence and arguments put forward to me by various Members of the Assembly, based on the August 27, 2012 report of the Estimates Committee, and in consultation with only my procedural advisors at the Table. At no time did any person seek to pressure me with respect to that ruling. And, it having been made, it was not changeable in any event- this simply was not possible.

As I also noted in my July 30 public statement, I meet and have discussions regularly on a wide variety of issues related to my duties and responsibilities as Speaker. I'm sure all Members can appreciate the extreme reluctance I would have in divulging the topic or content of any of those discussions, for many of them take place with you and your colleagues. To do so would justifiably open me up to criticism that I cannot be trusted to keep confidences, regardless of whether they are of great or minor importance.

However, given the serious nature of the matter at hand and in what I judge to be in the best interests of this institution, I am prepared to say that at no time, in any discussion I might have had after delivering my September 13 ruling, was I the recipient of any inappropriate overture or suggestion. I have not been pressured, intimidated, cajoled, warned or threatened in any way, nor was any influence exerted upon me to do or say any particular thing or to pursue any particular course of action. Nothing of this nature has taken place.

It is because I can so clearly give the House this assurance that I must find that a prima facie case of privilege does not exist. I thank the Member for Simcoe-Grey for providing me with a comprehensive notice in this matter.
